10 July 2022
Ministers Paragraph

I shared this text at the APW AGM on Wednesday:

[God] chose David his servant
and took him from the sheep pens;
from tending the sheep he brought him
to be the shepherd of his people Jacob,
of Israel his inheritance.
And David shepherded them with integrity of heart;
with skillful hands he led them. Psalm 78:70-72

I'm reminded that David, before he became one of Israel's greatest Kings, earnt his stripes as a shepherd. He was a skilled shepherd with integrity of heart. Just as he faithfully cared for his sheep, so did he care deeply for the people of Israel as their King (with a few exceptions…)

Integrity means that what we do in the ordinary and everyday matters and translates to the grand and significant. Faithful in the small translates to faithful in the extreme. This is why we need to be so diligent in the small and seemingly insignificant because it is the training ground for the large and bold plans God has for us!

God Bless
Rev Jas

"CAMEOS" By Edna Neville (Aunt Haysl).

People are lonely because they build walls instead of bridges.

Give to others and share what you possess.

Gratitude is a duty which ought to be paid, but which none have a right to expect.

Good manners and soft words have brought many a difficult thing to pass.

The truth is that happiness is the most powerful of tonics.

Be generous in your thoughts and you'll be happy in your ways.

The only people to get even with are those who have helped you.

It's nice to be important,

But it's much more important to be nice.
