Ministers Paragraph

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all those who practice it have a good understanding. His praise endures forever. Psalm 111:10

I may have been accused of taking things for granted sometimes. Health, lifestyle, family, church family. Assuming these things will always be there may give the impression that they don't hold much value at all if I don't attend to their importance out of indifference or apathy. Maybe even my faith in God. Maybe the grace God offers me when He called/invited me into his family/kingdom. Taking God for granted is a dangerous pathway and certainly not a healthy way to show God Love and worship.

But giving God the attention, the devotion, the worship He truly deserves is the beginning of wisdom according to the Psalmist. Revering God, Fearing God, opens the heart to seeing God at work in our lives. Placing ourselves in God's hands and growing in faith and hope as God intends for us. It's also a good practice to develop to help us value all other areas of our lives too. Fearing God is the beginning of wisdom.

FROM THE FAIR COMMITTEE.

A BIG thank you to all who helped make our market a success!!

Results were really good for the Mini Market held last Saturday.

We would like to thank all those who helped set up, worked on stalls, provided food, plants and items to sell. Also, those who stayed to clean up after the market.

It was a fun day of friendship and fellowship!

Monies are still coming in, but this is an indication of the results so far:

Sales on the day:	$2404.30
Firewood orders:	$900 .00
Total:	$3,304.30

The firewood sales are proving popular, with orders continuing to coming in.

Pinecones sales have been great this year, so we will continue to collect these after the summer months.

All your efforts are much appreciated!

From your grateful committee: Annette Paterson,

Joan Shearer and Donna.

HANDY HINTS

Solar lights are great to have on hand in case of a power blackout.

Crushed mint, bay leaves, cloves and eucalyptus placed around the house will deter flies.
